years ago visited all parts of Germany and many places in Great Britain to study the condition of the laboring classes there. We drew pen pictures of the manners of life, the food, the homes and the wages of English and German workmen, and, by way of contrast, reminded his hearers how prosperous were they and their fellow citizens in the land of Protection. Mr. Rahn showed by statistics not only that the average wages were twice as much here as in Germany, but that these wages bought twice as much food as did the average earnings in the fatherland of his audience. He was often applauded.

Henry Hirsch also spoke. Charles Spring was the secretary, and others present were H. Ulm, August Palke, N. Selnert, Frederick Glock, T. Muller, H. Bruns, A. Urban and H. Smith.

The band of German Republicans of the old XXth Assembly District (the new XVIII) has steadily in creased and last night twenty-five new names wer added to the roll. The Rev. Nicholas Bjerring was in the chair and the meeting was one of the most interesting of the campaign. The hall at No. 202 East Fifty-sixth-st. was filled with carnest and intelligent Germans, who listened with much attention telligent Germans, who listened with much attention to plain talks upon the issues of the campaign. The Rev. Mr. Blerring introduced Charles Hartzleim, a well-known Brookiyn business man, who spoke upon the protective policy of the Republican party. Mr. Hartzheim was a Union soldier and has of late years travelled extensively through the South. He was able to give his audience a concise account of Southern polities. Henry Lipsky made an address upon redprecity. Among the Republicans present were Charles C. Schultz, Frederick Haas, Rudolph Beitler, George Schnedler, John Schmeckenbecher and Herman F. Schultz.

In the name of the German Republican Citizens' Association. Dr. P. A. E. Boetskes last night called to order the meeting of German Republicans of the KYIIth Assembly District, at Wendel's Hall, corner Forty-fourth-st, and Ninth-ave. He explained the aim of the club and gave expression to the hope that the movement would be as successful among the people of the XVIIth Assembly District as it had been in the other Assembly districts of the city. He addressed the meeting in a speech and his well-chesen words were much applanded. The following were elected officers of the club: E. Nusspiekel, president; F. Sturm, vice-president; George Dichm, secretary: Eritz Meser, treasurer. Josef Eckert addressed the meeting, explaining the issues of the campaign. It was resolved to hold a meeting each Monday until election. Among those present were A. Bornkessel, Christian Internant, Frederick Hacold, Adam Senges, Otto Wessel, Christian Frank, John Matter, George Grennerich, Valentine Haltemer, H. Landwehr, Jacob Nagel, August Ransch, Christian Doele, Jacob Vosseler, Gustav Eckert, John F. Faber, J. G. Taddelsen and Charles F. Gebeletin. The Harrison and Reid German War Veterans' Campaign Club held a meeting last evening at its head-quarters, No. 62 Fast Fourth-st. Large delegations from the various veteran organizations were precent, and plans for the campaign were discussed. The words of General Sickles to his gomrades at Washington and the warm-hearted greeting of President Harrison to the veterans were applauded and contrasted sharply with the half hearted statements of Mr. Cleveland and the tone of the Southern Democratic press. The following resolutions were unanimously adopted: are hereby tendered to The Tribune for its good campaign.

Resolved That the thanks of the German war veterar are hereby tendered to The Tribune for its good campaign work and for espousing the cause of the old veterans against the insults hesped upon them by Southern Demo-veteran and every true lover of good and refined journalism.

A mass-meeting of veterans will be held at the Germania Assembly Rooms, October 21, for which prominent speakers have been engaged.

FOR ANOTHER GREAT RALLY TO-NIGHT. REPUBLICANS WILL FLOCK TO COOPER UNION AGAIN-SENATOR RISCOCK AND CONGRE'S-

MAN ROUTELLE TO SPEAK. The Republicans of this city will have another opportunity to-night to fill the Cooper Union to overflowing. Another mass-meeting with well-known Re-publican speakers will be held there. United States Senator Frank Hiscock, of Syracuse, will be the chief speaker of the evening. He will devote his attention to the tariff and to the Democratic theft of the Senate Senator Hiscock has made a special study of the tariff in the last two years and he will probably be able to tell his housers some interesting truths in Senator Hiscock will be aided by Congressman Charles A. Boutelle, of Maine. Congressman Boutelle was chalrman of the Committee on Shipping of the List Congress and he has made this question a close study. Besides these two orators there will be a fine band. The meeting to-night will be held under the management of the Republican Club of this city. The doors will be thrown open at 7 o'clock, but seats will be reserved for women until 7:45 o'clock.

Chairman John S. Smith, of the Campaign Committee of the Republican Club, was at Republican National of the Repulsian beadquarters yesterday and in regard to the meeting he said: "Another grand rally will be held at the Cooper Institute on Tuesday evening. The speakers ill be Senator Hiscock and Congressman Boutelle, of Maine. Mr. Hiscock is not only the senior Senator, but the only real active Senator from the State of New-York; hence all the people are interested to hear words of wisdom from him. He has made a deep atudy of the tariff and its effect upon the country, and, shortly before the adjournment of Congress this summer, he gave the result of his researches to the country in a masterly manner. We confidently expect to hear new truths from his lips on this question one is more familiar with all the iniquities of the State Senate steal and the legislation of last winfer than Senator Hiscock, and we expect him to address his remarks to the Democrats in a forcible manner. "Mr. Boutelle, like Senator Hiscock, has made a special study of one particular subject, namely ship-ping. It is a long time since we have heard that ping. It is a long time since we have heard that matter discussed on the stump in this city. No one in this country has it more completely in hand than Mr. Boutelle. It is of vital interest to the commercial community as well as the wage-carners. If our shipbuilding was revived, even to the mark which it attained before the war, it would give employment to tens of thousands of men in and around the city. With our growing trade, in conjunction with reciprocity, we ought to carry our goods in our own slips, made at our own docks, and so make ourselves complete masters of the situation. Mr. Boutelle will be able to tell us how this can be done, and all business men and workingmen will feel a deep interest to learn his views."

THE ROBERT A. GREACEN BATTERY. The Robert A. Greacen Battery met at No. 449 Fighth-ave. last evening and added new members to its membership roll. William R. Bartley, the captain of the battery, presided at the meeting, and M. Gannon was secretary, in the absence of the regular secretary of the organization. The gathering was the regular semi-monthly meeting, and only routine business was transacted. The secretary an-nounced that he had received many letters from prominent Republicans who congratulated the battery on the excellent showing it made on the evening of the big Republican mass-meeting at Cooper Union.

WEST SIDE MERCHANTS AT WORK AGAIN. An enthusiastic meeting was held yesterday afterneon at No. 201 Chambers-st. to reorganize for the campaign the West Side Merchants' Republican Club which did such effective worsk among the produce mer-chants four years ago. B. Franklin Hart, who was presilent during the last Presidential campaign, was re-elected Charles E. Lichtenhein was elected secrery, and H. K. Ronk treasurer. The president appointed the following executive committee: John A. Smith, C. H. Abelman, Washington Winsor, F. W. mer, George Pope, Wesley Ellis and E. A. Brown. A committee was appointed to have a club banner made. Addresses were made by President Hart, John A. Smith and others. The club already has soo members enrolled. The next meeting will be held at No. 201 Chambers-st., at 2.30 p. m., on Friday.

THE DANIEL G. CUNNINGHAM ASSOCIATION. The regular weekly mass-meeting of the Daniel J. Countingham Independent Republican Association was held last night at its headquarters, No. 235 Fast One-hundred-and-seventh-st. Morris Levy presided, and Cornellus O'Meara was secretary. Stirring campaign

JOLLITY AT A BIG PICNIC.

THE JOHN J. O'BRIEN ASSOCIATION HAS ITS

ANNUAL OUTING. The John J. O'Brien annual outing and games. which were held vesterday at Stimmel's Hotel, White stone Landing, were a huge success from beginning Jollity and good-fellowship reigned supreme The association has about 1,200 members, and these, together with about the same number of guests, left New-York for Whitestone at 8 a. m. on the steamer hancellor. About 2,600 people ate the breakfast which was served. Dinner was at 6 p. m. athletic games were well contested and ably handled. Upon the rturn of the party to the city it was met at the Broome st. pier by the Citizens' Association and the J. E. March Association. Brass bands accompanied both. A big procession in which fully 3,500 participated was then formed, and the line of march, which was through the principal East Side streets, was illuminuted with lanterns. As the parade passed the different clubs fireworks were set off and the cheering was enthusiastic in the extreme. It was at the O'Brien headquarters at No. 242 Grand-st., however, that the excitement was most intense, but everything passed off smoothly and without accident.

Among those present at Whitestone were Morris Isaacs, Abraham Levy, David May, Pr. Theodore Meyer, Theodore Feldstein, Gustav Nowak, George W. Johnson, John O'Connor, John Meegan, Henry Henschel, Police Sergeants Jeremiah McSweeney and John of the latter, No. 54 West Thirty-sixth-st. Donohue; John Bell, Frank J. Fuchs and Edward Newman. The guests included Congressman Campbell, Newman. The guests included Congressman Campbell, Assemblyman Sullivan, and Justices Goldfogle, Newburger, Clancy and Divver. The officers of the John J. O'Brien Association are Bernard Rourke, president; Charles Smith and H. Van der Wyk, vice-presidents; Henry Loewy, financial sceretary; Benson M. Levy, recording secretary: Frederick J. Seelig, treasurer; and Charles Ranb, sergeant-at-arms.

PROGRESSIVE YOUNG REPUBLICANS.

A typical young American club of the East Side is he Progress Republican Club, which stirs up the voters in the legal Xth Assembly District. Baldwin Rands, Denuls Burke, James Loomis, Edward Ken-nedy, John Thomas, J. Beatty, William M. Kennedy and many other prominent Harlem Republicans.

LISTENING TO ABLE SPEAKERS.

Another instance of the intense interest taken in Republican politics this year was afforded by the large attendance at the meeting held by the John Ericsson Republican Club last night, at No. 158 West One-hundred and-twenty-fifth-st. When the meeting was called to order the large hall was filled, and when Jacob Kemple, of West Virginia, the first speaker, arcse, he faced a typical Republican audience. Mr. Kemple spoke on protection and was warmly applicated by his hearers. He was followed by Edward Fitzwilliams, of Boston, and J. B'aumgrer whose remarks were received with enthusiasm by their hearers. A local quartet enlivened the proceedings by singing campaign songs effectively. The officers of the club are: President, Daniel Johnson; vice-president, John Smith; secretary, M. A Renson; trensurer, John Avitson; sergeant-at-arms, Charles Larsen. Among those present were F. E. Lane, Mr. Wels, James T. Lane, William Thompson, O. E. Johnson, J. M. Avitson, J. M. Zellar, A. Wilson, Frederick Anderson, John A. Larsen and Charles E. Anderson.

ENTHUSIASM IN THE IXth DISTRICT.

The citizens of the old IXth Assembly District last vening attested their loyalty and devotion to the Republican party and the platform which it upholds by thronging in mass-meeting the rooms of the Lincoln Union, in the Ross Building, in Abingdon Square, Although there are four or five Republican clubs in the "great American ward." and all are holding weekly meetings, an advocate of protective tariff never lacks a large audience. There were about 600 present last evening. George M. Clark, the president, presided.

Professor Edward C. Marshall, who said that he was the founder of the American Protective Tariff League the founder of the American relative to the evening. In 1887, was the principal speaker of the evening. Professor Marshall was at that time a resident of the IXth Assembly District, and his appearance provoked enthusiastic cheers. Dr. Daniel Brown and E. R. Root also spoke. The Amity Musical Circle played several selections and J. Lesile Grossin recited.

OCEAN HILL REPUBLICANS.

Last night was the regular meeting of the Ocean Hill Last night was the regular meeting of the Ocean Hill Republican Campaign Glub, at No. 2,132 Fulton-st., Brooklyn. There was an overflow meeting and the crowds were entertained during the evening by eloquout addresses by R. R. Wheeler, Delmore Elwell, and General I. V. Pratt, of Washington, D. C. Each speaker was frequently and enthusiastically cheered, especially when the manes of Harrison, Reid or McKinley were mentioned. the names of Harrison, Reid of Mckinley were mentioned. The Ocean Hill Republican Club is making arrangements to hold a large mass-meeting at Turn Hall, Sumpterst, next week. Several notable speakers have promised their services, and a grand raily is expected. A resolution was passed to have a number of ward parades, and to extend invitations to the other clubs of the ward to take part. The beast made by the club that the membership of the backs would reach the one thousand mark seems on the books would reach the one thousand mark seems about to be verified, as new names are constantly being enrolled, and each member seems to be doing all he can for the success of the party.

Mr. Cleveland ceased testerday to look for a visit from Senator IIII be cause he knew that the Senator had gone to Albany the evening before and he wore all day the appear-ance of a man who had failed in the main object which he had in view. It is known that during Satur day, and on Sunday, almost up to the hour when Mr. Hill departed from New-York, every possible pressure was brought to bear upon him to induce him to visit Mr. Cleveland at the Victoria Hotel or to go to some other place where the ex-President could meet him, by accident, as it were, or in any way that it would suit Mr. Hill, but the Senator stubbornly refused to do anything of the kind. It was even proposed that Mr. Hill should go to Mayor Grant's house in West Seventy-third-st. an hour before his train time on sunday and Mr. Cleveland would drop in and embrace the opportunity of grasping the Senator by the hand In the presence of a few witnesses who could make the glad news known to the nervous expectant Democracy But the Senator was inexorable.

HEARING FROM THE OLD SOLDIERS.

THE BOGUS TARIFF REFORM CONCERN IN FIFTH-AVE. GETTING FOME UNPLEASANT REPLIES.

The bogus ex-soldier concern, doing business somewhere in Fifth ave., under the auspices of the Demoeratle National Committee, and engaged in sending circulars marked "personal" to genuine old soldiers, asking them to join the National Veterans' Tariff Reform League, and aid in the election of Cleveland and stevenson, is receiving answers of an exceedingly unsatisfactory kind from the "old boys" who have been favored with the circulars. One of these documents, signed "Theodore F. Reed, secretary," printed in The Tribune yesterday, together with the reply of three well-known Union veterans of Greene County, advising the "League" that it took no interest in either "Tariff Reform" or the candidates of the Democracy. THE M'KINLEY BILL AND ENGLISH LACEMAKING. Scranton, Penn., Oct. 3 (Special).-Henry Mosley, the manager of the Scranton Lace Manufacturing Company, formerly manufactured lace in Notting-ham. He returned last week from a visit in Eng-land. "The McKinley bill has crippled English industries to an amazing extent," said he. "Wherever I went I found mills closed, men and women out of work and industries paralyzed. There is hardly a branch of industry in England that has not suffered on account of the American tariff, and in many cases rain has been the lot of the manufacturer. The town of Saltaire, which is virtually owned by Sir Titus salt, whose cloth and plush manufactures are known the world over, is literally dead now. Sir Titus, whose financial standing used to be considered as sound as that of the Bank of England, is a ruined man. His entire trade was with the United States, and now that he can not compete with American manufacture, his works are idle and his immense capital invested in the business is almost a

"The lacemaking industry in the city of Nottingham is in a bad condition. The factories had big orders in anticipation of the McKinley bill, and big orders in anticipation of the McKinley ball, and now that the markets are stocked, they have nothing to do. The McKinley bill has made lace manufacturing possible in the United States. The English incemakers cannot now compete with those of this country, their largest market has been closed against them, and They have been obliged to close their works. When the time comes for jobbers to purchase again, the lace industry will have so matured in the United States that the home factories will be able to supply the demand."

TO VOTE TO-DAY IN FLORIDA.

Jacksonville, Fla., Oct. 3.-By the general election law passed in 1889, State and county elections in Florida are separated from National and Congressional elections. This is the first year that the separation clause of the new law is operative. On Tuesday Florida elects a Governor, Secretary of State, one Justice of the Supreme Court, Attorney-General, Controller, Treasurer, Superintendent of Public Instruction and a Commissioner of Agriculture; all the forty-five countles choose members of the lower house of the Legislature, and sixteen out of thirty-two Senatorial districts choose State Senators; all the counties choose meant to "vote as they shot."

More replies of 'he same kind have been sent to "Secretary" Reed. One from Charles A. Fuller, a are chosen for two years only, the session of the Legislature being biennial.

A BIG DEMOCRATIC FIZZLE.

THE STATE CONVENTION OF CLUBS A FAILURE.

ABOUT 100, INSTEAD OF THE 1,000 DELEGATES EXPECTED, APPEARED.

The much advertised convention of the New-York State League Democratic clubs held yesterday in Chickering Hall, Fifth ave. and Eighteenth st., was in respect of members and enthusiasm about as complete a fizzle as the most ardent Republican could wish. The hopeful promoters of the convention had announced that it was to be a gathering of over 1,000 delegates from the Democratic clubs all over the State, and that it would prove a rousing prelude to the National Convention of Democratic clubs which is to meet to-day in the Academy of Music. The hour for the opening of the convention had been fixed at 10:30 a. m. For some reason the delegates were extremely "tardy" as one of the managers expressed it. At noon about fifty lonesome looking men, some of them wearing the regulation badges of the "League," had appeared. An hour later perhaps as many more had straggled in attracted it may be by the strains of the 66th Regiment Hand which labored hard to furnish musical entertainment for its sparse audience Finding that there was no prospect of the vacant seats being filled, John Boyd Tracher, of Albany, called the convention to order and delivered an address. Mr. Thacher said among other things that The system of Protection, the fostering of unnatural industries by the imposition of unnatural taxation, is not only a crime, but according to the climax of Talleyrand, it is a blunder." At the close of his remarks Mr. Thacher introduced Assemblyman Sulzer, of this city, as temporary chairman of the convention.

Mr. Sulzer, who prides himself upon his striking facial resemblance to that great and eloquent champion of Protection, Henry Clay, and who is himself no mean orator, made a speech cologizing Mr. Cleveland and telling his auditors that they should also be extremely proud of 19 vid B. Hill. Both cheers and hisses greeted the name of New-York's Democratic Senator.

E. C. Stanton was elected temporary secretary and M. C. Redmond was appointed sergeant-at-arms. On motion of Dr. J. H. Demarest, of Harlem, the rules of the Assembly were made the rules of the convention. A Committee on Flatform and Resolutions, Macgrave Coxe, chairman, was appointed and one on credentials. with A. P. Degan at its head. The latter chairman read a long list of clubs, whose delegates rarely answered to their names, after which Mr. Coxe read the platform, which followed generally the lines of the platform at Chicago, and was especially savere against the "Force" bill, which, it was asserted, "was traught with the greatest danger to the Nation." David Martin and M. S. Quay came in for several sentences of abuse.

and M. S. Quay came in 102 and man, made a speech abuse.

Charles E. Brown, a colored man, made a speech after the platform had been adopted, but he neglected to embrace the opportunity of defending the frothy demandation of the "Force bill" which took up so much of its surface.

At the afternoon session Senator John J. Linson, of Kingston, and Congressman Amos J. Carruings, of this city, made speeches. John loved Thacher and the rest of the officers were re elected, and the disconsolate looking assemblanc, which had grown gradually smaller in numbers as the hours rolled by, took an adjournment for one Year.

FOR A BIG YALE COLLEGE CLUB. New-Haven, Conn., Oct. 3 (Special).-Eight hundred

Yale men put themselves on record to-night as desiring the success of the Republican party in November by assembling at a meeting called to determine the mind of the members of the college who are inclined toward Republicanism, in regard to forming a campaign marching club. It was voted unanimously to form a club. The election of officers resulted in the following choices: President, R. B. Wade, of St. Louis; vice-president, J. J. Brooks, of Pittsburg; secretary, C. Ralph Hickox, of New-York City; treas arer, Jasoff Evans, of Morristown, N. J.; and battalion leader, Noah H. Swayne, 2d,of New-York City. The club will be organized immediately. The chances are that it will include over a thousand members, and the name selected will be the Depew Battalion. Uniforms and battle-axes will be the Depentation on the battalion will take part in most of the torchlight processions of the Connecticut campaign. A college drum corps will, in all probability, be organized to lead the battalion.

NOMINATED FOR THE ASSEMBLY.

He is a borough commissioner, and succeeded in having several laws passed benefiting Asbury Park in the last Legislature.

ROTTEN EGGS FOR WEAVER AT RICHMOND.

Richmond, Va., Oct. 3.—Generals Weaver and Field, the Third party candidates for President and Vice-President, and Mrs. Lease, of Kansas, addressed a large audience to night at Old Market Hall, composed mainly of Democrats. A goodly number of women were present. A number of eggs of uncertain age made their appearance through the window, but the attention of the audience was quiet and carnest. General Weaver's speech was chiefly devoted to the present banking sys-tem and the abuse of the Denocratic party for its failure to pass the Silver MR.
